

SHELDON G. YOUNGCHIEF

My name is Sheldon G. Youngchief, the son of Patricia Youngchief & grandson to Late Sylvester Youngchief and Late Florence Youngchief. I'm 40 years old and married to Brandi (John) Youngchief. Her parents are Linda John and Edward Bezesko her late grandparents are Late David John Sr. and Late Mary John. Together we have four beautiful children, Jayda, Keyara, Jett and Aysia. I grew up all my life in Kehewin Cree Nation and also grew up assisting my late grandfather with our traditional ceremonies. I am kind hearted, easy going, empathetic and family oriented. I enjoy family time, golfing with friends and family, hunting, fishing, travelling and assisting family/friends any way I can.

My vision for our Nation is self-sufficiency and to be accountable and transparent to our members. Also, a vision that our Nation will be able to employ and become a sustainable Nation for our people.

As a Leader I envision and will strive to work toward:

- Unity & Equality of all members
- Elder/Youth Advisory Committees
- Governance/Treaties
- Education
- Economic Development/Partnerships
- Land Claims
- Youth Programs
